

OPEN SOURCE MUSIC FESTIVAL

Taking place as all-day marathon event, this new festival is focused the idea of collaboration and connection between artists. Taking the concept of “open source” as its inspiration, the festival presents an impressive line-up of performers and ensembles from across the contemporary classical, jazz and electronic music worlds. In addition, Joel Fan will perform the world premiere of a new piano suite he commissioned for the occasion. Titled Couplets, this new world features contributions from 8 composers in 4 pairs, each a married couple, including Michael Gordon and Julia Wolfe, and Anthony Cheung and Wang Lu.
